1. I change the world now.
2. I change the worlds now.
3. I change the worlds of men and angels to be the angels of God, not man not, but man that's only surrendered to be who God is coming through my words to be made complete and born again birthed again in the new that I am doing revealing now I have in this DATABASE ONE SCHOOL that I have given you. The University of sorrows, not; but the NEW COVENANT I am, giving you I AM, SCHOOL and more through these words that I am changing now worlds with -- for I will be "hidden" no longer "under a barrel" of religion or anything else of flesh or "other" that you can imagine or not.

4. For I will do a new thing with the surrendered who come through my words now to be me, to see who I am doing what where and what values have I that I, placed upon you, not; but that YOU GROW into and being me with my, traits of the vernacular, not; but my diction and grammar that reflects only me creating me. In my tombs of sorrow, not, but I am going now to a new place and I am doing new things with ALL of the surrendered who will simply be me who will flow me like this in coffeeshops and on street corners and where ever they lie about not strewn with man's ideas again covering them up, but knowing me shouting me from street corners I won't, but I will be in the MARKET PLACES of all men everywhere and all men women and children will know my name -- is them who I am is not sorrowing again in mammon's teatage of whoreage that only makes me want more mammon or more religion or both, or of that which takes me and rips me apart "in my mother's womb".

5. Or where is my mother and who is my father and now ALL will know that THE QUESTIONS are mine and the answers are mine in my mind that I am giving, that I have given, and am giving more and more so of my mind to flow so freely of you in you to you to be only you, not; but to be me of me only me in my mind not needing another again! And seeing that I change all worlds now with my love -- light my planets replete with me and I will be sorrowful not, for I will be the sorrowed one glory'd now laying sorrow aside but for to redeem it where I come and wash their feet, opening their eyes so that they see me "in their mirror" knowing who I am -- is them healed made replete and

6. I am changing ALL WORDS to be "mine" not or am I completely MY HEART being known, reflected now by "ray guns" not, but what are you speaking LIGHT WITH? My heart made known full well this day DECREED PROCLAMATED will be and sorrow will not accompany me again for I will eradicate it, for I change all worlds with the words of I am, for I am my word, I am my thoughts and I am the powers the power of one made whole in me of me being me all of you are now who reject me not but will come into the loves of one made whole in the love of one who loves all to be the loves of one, one loved completely grown-up matured. Outgrown of nothing, not; but my word that grows now all things perfectly well and the tree of life known now will be IN ALL of you -- now masticating upon each other's "tree" no more and chopping down "the cherry's" I will make New Nations abroad and far and wide will no longer be "reaching out" for other's territory or monious ones who only want testimonies of other, to bequeath them to sorrow's blessing, not, but to control.

7. And abdicate not your blessing now that I have given am giving and revealing more and more about and into you be me who I am without you separating from me anymore in thought or action or deed in any way shape or form, for being formless I am we are now one, no longer apart from "my father's will" for my father's will is to do the will of him who sent me, or did you send me or have I sent you to reveal me, all of you being me my name -- answering that now you will, will you? Yes, and amen.

8. I love you all and I change all words, not; I change NONE, but I change all worlds with these and now flowing yours through you to you being me my mine words will come forth from you who love me who will not be solemnized in sorrow's eyes again. Be free all of you. I am! Amen.

9. I love you all. This day and forevermore be me incarcerating nothing in your eyes anymore, for mine sets free and I love you all be me being me forever one. Amen.

10. This is Theodore Cottingham in the van at 12:30 PM. Thank you.
11. Share these words so freely with others. Thank you.
